GM Consulting (GMC) is a project management company created to help companies solve their most pressing business challenges.

GMC consultants provide seamless, scalable and quick solutions that focus on the competitive advantages your organization has to offer. Competitively priced short-term special projects are our niche.

Since the company's inception in 2005, our business has thrived as corporate resources are stretched thinner and thinner and organizations continue to demand more with less. That is where we come in.

We proactively assign a project manager whose role it is to improve performance and maximize value by leveraging the right tools to deliver World-Class Solutions on-time and within budget.

Our differentiator is our ability to analyze and resolve issues on-time with detailed and accurate solutions.

Services include (but not limited to):

- SWOT Analysis
- Data Analysis and Presentation
- Business Development
- Concept Development
- Marketing Material Creation
- Go-To-Market Plans
- Special Projects

For additional information regarding our consulting capabilities or past performance, please contact Guy Madison at (404) 551-4697 or via email at gmadison@gmglobalconsulting.com

GMC is currently working on projects in RFP management for the construction industry, on-line products for realtors, 8(a) certification, B2B marketing, customer service solutions, and seminar development for a non-profit entity.
